

Alik Emelianov

237 Camden Rd NE, Atlanta GA 30309

(512)-800-5000

aliksemelianov@gmail.com

visit alikiemelianov.com

EDUCATION:

- Senior at the Westminster Schools
- 97 GPA on a 100 scale
- Awards:
 - Honor Roll 9th through 11th grade (12th grade in progress)
 - National Honor Society
 - National Merit Commended Student
 - AP Scholar with Distinction
- Two computer science camps at Georgia Tech
- Coding incubator at TUMO in Armenia
- Experience in Java, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, and currently learning Swift

EXTRACURRICULARS:

- Paid internship at Spiralyze LLC the summer after junior year
- Founder and President of the Westminster Coding Club
- Vice President of the Westminster Entrepreneurship Club
- Interned at Biomedical Engineering department at Georgia Tech the summer after freshman year
- Reviewer of Very Short Introduction: Systems Biology by Eberhard Voit, soon to be printed by the Oxford University Press
- Selected for the Student Innovation Leadership Council, VR and Software Team
- Competed in TIE Atlanta, a one-year entrepreneurship class and competition
- Learned at CLIC Spanish Exchange Program. Took Spanish classes and immersed myself in Spanish culture
- Participated in Robotics throughout middle school and 9th and 10th grade. Learned about hardware engineering, then transitioned to software engineering
- Taught at Odyssey at Westminster, built for Habitat for Humanity, and volunteer at the Atlanta Community Food Bank

ADDITIONAL SKILLS:

- Fluent in Russian and proficient in Spanish
- Sports:
 - Club, JV, and Varsity Soccer
 - 9th Grade and PRUMC Basketball
 - Cross Country